About the Conference

Sponsored by the Center for Advanced Energy Studies and the Energy Policy Institute, the Western Energy Policy Research Conference (WEPRC) is the premier energy policy research conference held in the Western United States. WEPRC will take place on August 30-31, 2012 in scenic Boise, Idaho. The Grove Hotel, Boise's only AAA-rated Four Diamond Hotel, will host the event.

Who Should Come?

WEPRC is a conference for academic and professional energy policy researchers. This conference is for you if you are seeking to present or discuss energy policy research with participants and panelists from academia, think-tanks and research institutes, NGOs, national laboratories, industry and government.
